dance this twisted ritual junk your filthy veins

KNOW YOU BETTER @

once upon a time in michigan i fell down on my knees and cried i watched another brother sell his soul i watched my love grow did and die i wouldve liked to know you better i wouldve liked to see us try i hope that no one here has seen me stealing my life story right on out of your back pocket
